Executive Summary

As of June 30, 2020

Berkeley Partners Management, LLC (“Berkeley Partners” or the “Sponsor”)

- Berkeley Partners (“Berkeley” or the “Sponsor”) is a fully integrated real estate operating company with a demonstrated history of generating value for its investors through the investment in and management of light industrial real estate
- Since 2005, our affiliates have sponsored a series of value-add investment funds and core separate accounts dedicated to the light industrial sector
- Together with its affiliates, owns and operates approximately 6.2 million square feet (“SF”) of light industrial real estate
- Approximately $1.2 billion of assets under management⁽¹⁾
- Berkeley Properties (“BP”) is Berkeley’s property management company that works exclusively on behalf of its series of funds and separately managed account⁽²⁾
- Berkeley was founded in San Francisco, CA and has additional corporate offices in Dallas, TX and Boston, MA with regional property management in select active markets

Berkeley Partners Value Industrial Fund V, L.P. (the “Fund”)

- Targeted $275 million value-add fund focused exclusively on light industrial real estate in urban core and infill locations throughout the U.S
- 11-13% net IRR (13-16% gross) target⁽³⁾, utilizing leverage of 50-65% per property
- Continuing the strategy of IC Berkeley Partners IV, L.P., this will be the Sponsor’s third institutional fund⁽⁴⁾
- The Fund held its first close on March 2, 2020 and currently has $312 million of limited partner commitments

(1) Assets under management as of March 31, 2020 and calculated as the sum of the gross market value of assets across funds and separate accounts managed by the Firm plus unfunded commitments and callable distribution.

(2) Please refer to slide 17 which details asset management fees and BP’s services and fees

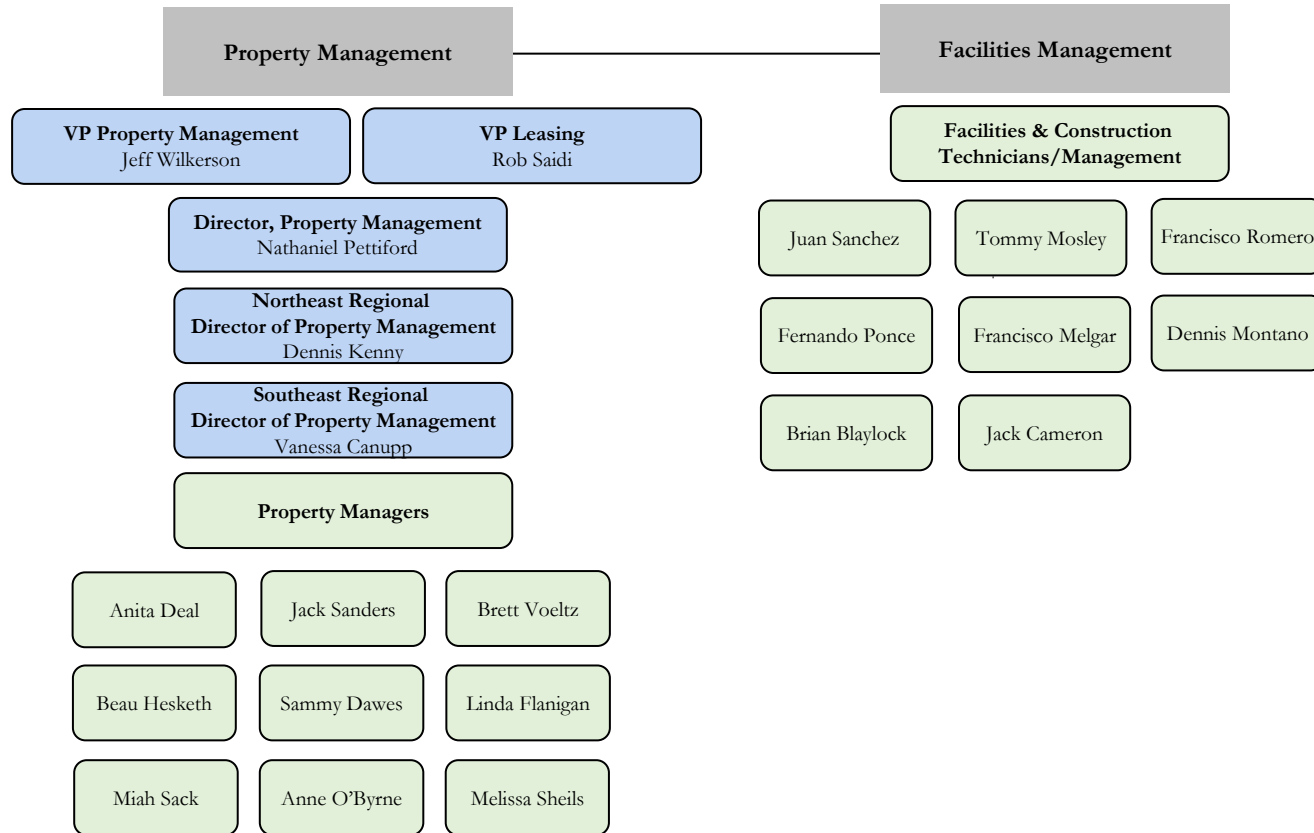

(3) The overall return target is not a guarantee nor a prediction nor projection of future performance

(4) Please refer to slide 13 which details the performance of BP’s other vehicles

Organization Chart – Berkeley Properties

As of October 2020

Market Overview – Light Industrial

- Large Market Size – 3-4 billion SF⁽¹⁾
- Light Industrial/Service Center/Office Warehouse Specifications
 - All units have grade and/or dock doors
 - Average unit is 80% warehouse/20% office
 - Clear heights generally 18 feet to 29+ feet
 - Flexible configuration appeals to broad base of U.S. businesses
 - Truck courts sufficient for box trucks up to 53' trailers
 - Low F.A.R. averages 40%
 - Infill urban locations – close to city centers, housing and transportation corridors
- Simple Building Construction
 - Most buildings are single-story concrete tilt, and CMU
 - Major capital improvements tend to be limited to roof, parking lots and HVAC units

Market Opportunity – Long-Term Positive Fundamental Trends in Light Industrial Real Estate

- Large, highly fragmented asset class
 - Opportunity to acquire from regional owner/operators
 - Smaller deal size leads to less institutional competition
- Steady current income with appreciation through active management (leasing, rent growth, etc.)
- Positive supply/demand trends
 - Limited new construction⁽¹⁾
 - Demolition of in-fill product in core markets
 - Stock per capita ratio at historic low⁽²⁾
- Multi-faceted diversification reduces risk
 - Geographies, unit sizes, lease durations, tenant types/industries
- Consistent performance across economic cycles
 - Serves small and mid-sized businesses which grow and shrink across economic cycles
 - Flexible unit configurations
- High replacement cost leads to limited new competitive supply

(2) Source: CoStar Portfolio Strategy, Q2 2020

Market Opportunity – Light Industrial Supply

Limited New Supply of Light Industrial

- Majority of new construction has been large unit projects
- Smaller unit properties have higher per unit build costs and compete with higher value-add infill developments (multifamily, strip retail, etc.) for land

Completion Rate As Percent Of Inventory (%)

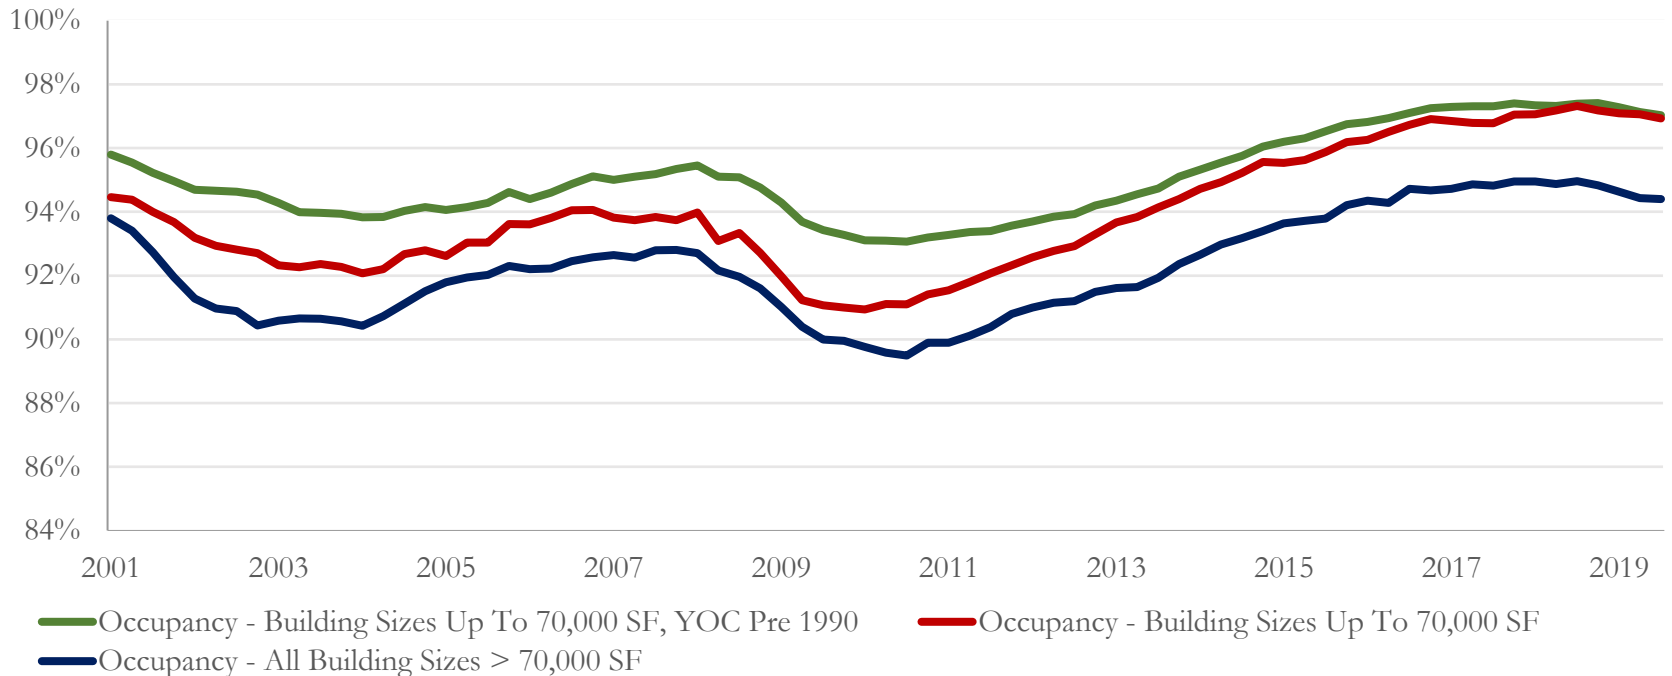

Market Opportunity – Light Industrial Demand

Occupancy Levels Outperform In Smaller, Infill Buildings

- Older buildings located in infill locations experience higher long-term occupancy levels
- Limited new supply and steady demand drive occupancy and rent levels, further driven by the generational shift towards office and multi-family development in infill locations
- Average year of construction for Sponsor's portfolio is 1988

Berkeley Target Markets – Occupancy Comparison

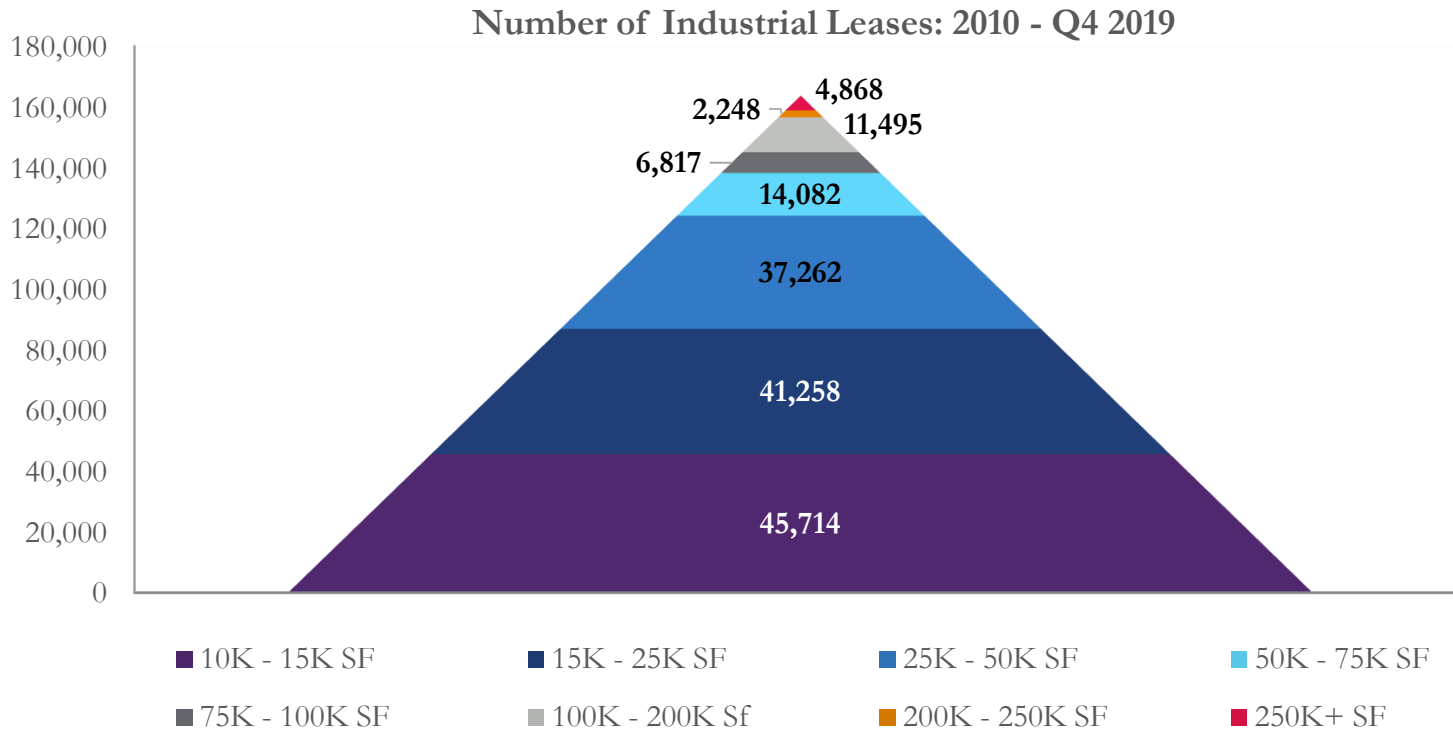

Market Opportunity – Light Industrial Leasing

Smaller Spaces Dominate Leasing

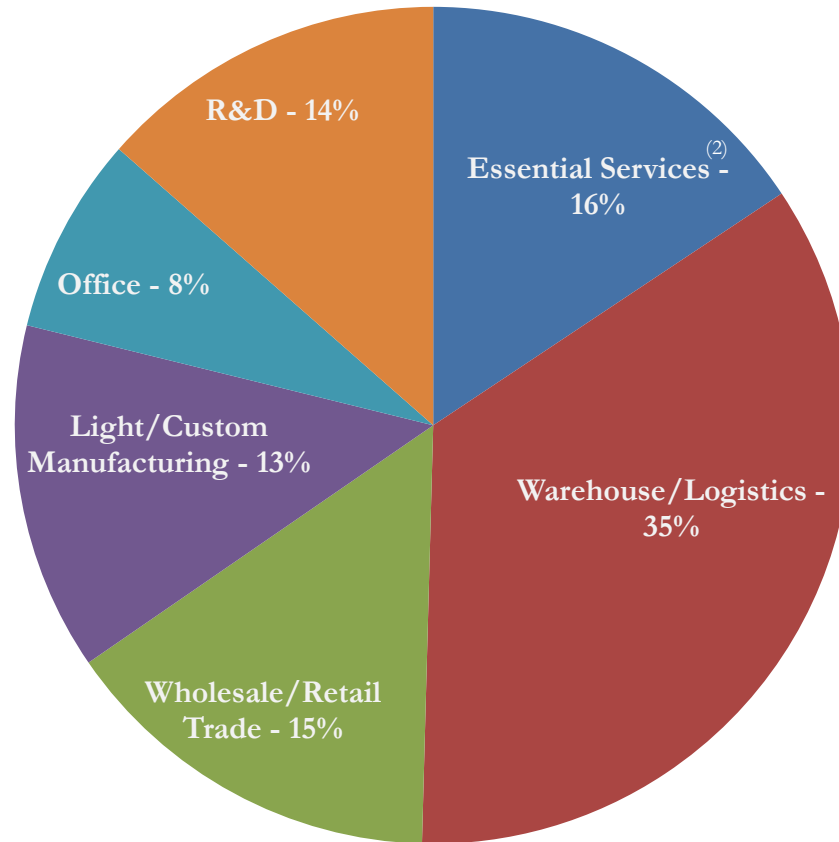

- Since 2010, approximately 120,000 leases were initiated for unit sizes below 50,000 square feet, which represents 76% of industrial leasing activity
- Strong demand driven by e-commerce, city services, food distribution and life science

Market Opportunity – Diversified Tenant Roster

- Current portfolio⁽¹⁾ comprised of a diversified tenant base with varying lease tenures, which is typical for light industrial real estate assets

(1) Based on rent roll as of June 2020. Subject to change.

(2) “Essential services” refers to tenants providing a service to the regional economy that has generally avoided mandated shutdowns, such as construction and automotive repair, etc.

(2) Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results, and there can be no assurance that an investment offered will achieve comparable results to any of the prior performance information contained herein or that targeted returns or other measured standards, which Berkeley Partners believes to be sound and reasonable under the circumstances, will be met

(3) BCPI, BCPII and BCT were retail / high net worth offerings and had higher offering costs and expenses as a percentage of capital raised compared to larger institutional offerings

(4) Fund III is fully committed with the remaining unfunded capital reserved. The fund will not acquire any new investments. The remaining Net Asset Value represents fund-level net cash.

Endnotes to Fund-Level Investment Performance

- I. “Total Called Commitments” represents the actual capital called from investors at the fund-level as of March 31, 2020.
- II. “Total Distributions” represents the total actual distributions to investors at the fund-level as of March 31, 2020.
- III. “Net Asset Value” represents the fair market value of the fund as of March 31, 2020, based on internal calculations by Berkeley Partners, net of outstanding debt and any other liabilities. Performance information that includes Net Asset Value assumes, with respect to unrealized properties, a hypothetical liquidation of such properties at their Net Asset Values. Fair market values are audited on an annual basis. The fund-level Net Asset Value includes fund-level items, including fund-level subscription lines, and any other liabilities, and fund-level net cash.
- IV. “Gross IRR” is calculated at the fund-level based on the fund-level Total Called Commitments and Total Distributions plus Net Asset Value, excluding fund-level management fees and carried interest. Gross IRR is reported at the fund-level and is the same as the Net IRR, but excludes the fund-level management fees and carried interest.
- V. “Gross Multiple” is calculated at the fund-level, including Total Distributions plus Net Asset Value, excluding fund-level management fees and carried interest, divided by total Called Commitments through March 31, 2020. Gross Multiple is reported at the fund-level and is the same as the Net Multiple, but excludes the fund-level management fees and carried interest.
- VI. “Net IRR” is calculated based on the Total Called Commitments, Total Distributions and Net Asset Value, net of all fund-level management fees, expenses and carried interest. There are no projections included.
- VII. “Net Multiple” represents actual fund-level Total Distributions plus Net Asset Value divided by Total Called Commitments as of March 31, 2020. There are no projections included.

Market Opportunity – COVID Update

- Vertical integration allows us to have direct relationship with tenants. Rent collections (as a percentage of occupied square feet) have average over 94% since April
- Leasing activity slowed in late March / early April, then velocity slowly increased as regional stay-at-home orders began to expire
- Over the past few years, we have shifted our value-add acquisitions strategy in anticipation of a potential future economic slowdown
 - Strong credit tenants in sectors with positive underlying fundamentals
 - Higher building quality – clear height, loading, parking
- Secular tailwinds forecasted to drive continued demand for industrial going forward
 - E-commerce
 - Cold storage
 - Onshoring of the global supply chain, including manufacturing
- However, not all industrial tenants are benefitting from secular growth trends
 - Recessionary environment will hurt tenants tied to retail, energy and trade
 - Expect more opportunities to come as the effects of the economic slowdown get fully priced in

Fund V Seed Transaction – 333 Centennial Parkway

333-335 Centennial Parkway, Louisville, CO 80027

Acquisition Date	July 2020	LTC⁽¹⁾	65%
Year of Construction	1995 & 2019	Sourcing	Lightly Marketed
SF	408,045	Going-In Cap Rate	6.07%
Purchase Price	$49.0M / $120PSF	Projected Gross IRR⁽²⁾	17.8%
Initial Equity	$17.4M	Projected Gross Multiple⁽²⁾	2.00x

Overview

- Single story, class B, multi-tenant industrial building with excellent access and visibility totaling 408,045 square feet.
- Located in northwest Denver (Louisville/Broomfield), between Boulder and Denver, the property is located at the last exit prior to Downtown Boulder. The Louisville sub-market is extremely land constrained with limited potential for new development going forward. The market attracts users that want close proximity to Boulder, but also want access to greater Denver.
- Acquired in limited marketing process from seller looking to exit asset for portfolio management reasons.
- Received six month rent guarantee on over half of the building from seller.
- 100% occupied at acquisition with 6 units ranging from 40,000 SF to 112,000.

Opportunity

- Going-in cap rate of 6.1% with levered year one cash-on-cash return of approximately 10%. Opportunity to create value by either rolling two tenants to market or re-tenanting the spaces at market rates by 2025.
- $7.44PSF NNN base rents are approximately 11% below market rents and 14% below broker rents.
- In-place tenants have been in business an average of 36 years and represent diverse industries, including automotive supply, manufacturing, biotechnology, pharmaceutical and e-commerce R&D.
- Post COVID-19 cap rate premium of roughly 50 bps. Purchase price of $120PSF is material discount to new construction and recent transactions, which range from $150-200PSF.

Value-Add Initiatives

- Push rents to market as tenants roll.
- Sell the building as a stabilized and functional mid-bay industrial building with high-quality credit tenants.

(1) Projected stabilized loan-to-cost ratio.

(2) Gross levered property-level returns based on projected pro-forma.
